"Thank you for coming and igniting a fire under us! CELf has helped us discover that we have the materials and supplies to impact change within our community. CELf provided us with the tools necessary to create a sustainability plan for our school and the initiative to make change happen."

-Nikki Smith
4th Grade Teacher
PS 3, Brooklyn, NY

This was the best PD experience I have had as an educator! I am walking away with a wealth of new knowledge and skills to incorporate sustainability into my own teaching and the habits and mindsets of my school.

-Tim Clare
Environmental Science Teacher
The Hewitt School, Manhattan, NY

Today's students are tomorrow's leaders. Join us at the Summer Institute to learn how to transform education by engaging students in ways that connect them to the world around them and develop their understanding of how everyone has the ability to change or impact a system, community and themselves.

Hands-on Workshops | Cutting-edge Presentations Interdisciplinary Teamwork | Field Trips

Gain strategies to apply teaching practices to real world learning through place and community contexts with visits to Hudson River Park Trust, The River Project, and Washington Square Park.

Whole Systems Change: Engage in activities that model systemic change for sustainability.

Citizen Science: Engage in place- and project-based learning to leverage expertise in your school community and develop student advocacy.

Ecological Literacy: Connect sustainability concepts and United Nations Global Goals to Next Generation Science Standards and STEM learning.
